

YOM KIPPUR
Book of Remembrance
2025•5786

*In the beginning of the year
and when it ends,
we remember them.*

Where Jewish Life Shines Bright

Our Yizkor Memorial

As we gather for Yom Kippur, 5786, our hearts and minds turn to the memory of those who are no longer with us — those who gave us life, instilled in us enduring values, and passed down the rich legacy of our Jewish heritage.

We remember our loved ones, mentors, colleagues, and teachers who guided our paths and helped shape the choices that define who we are today.

The names inscribed in this Book of Remembrance call forth a tapestry of emotions — gratitude and sorrow, longing and love.

May their memories continue to inspire us and be a blessing.

Senior Rabbi Robert Nosanchuk, Rabbi Joshua Caruso,

PSALM 23

The Lord is my shepherd, I shall not want. The Lord makes me lie down in green pastures, leads me beside still waters, and restores my soul. You lead me in right paths for the sake of Your Name. Even when I walk in the valley of the shadow of death I shall fear no evil, for you are with me; Your rod and Your staff – they comfort me. You have set a table before me in the presence of my enemies; You have anointed my head with oil; my cup overflows. Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life, and I shall dwell in the house of God forever.

EL MALEI RACHAMIN

O God full of compassion, Eternal Spirit of the universe, grant perfect rest under the wings of Your Presence to our loved ones who have entered eternity. Master of Mercy, let them find refuge forever in the shadow of Your wings, and let their souls be bound up in the bond of eternal life. The Eternal God is their inheritance. May they rest in peace, and let us say: Amen.

May the Source of peace send peace to all who mourn, and comfort to all who are bereaved. Amen.

PRAYER AT A MOTHER'S GRAVE

"Eternal, my heart is not haughty, nor mine eyes lofty: neither do I exercise myself in things too great, or in things too wonderful for me. Surely I have stilled and quieted my soul; like a weaned child with its mother, my soul is with me like a weaned child. O Israel, hope in the Eternal from this time forth and forever."

— Psalm CXXXI

O mother dear, I cannot think of you as dead, though I stand before your earthly grave, your spirit lives and your love is everlasting. A mother's love is eternal, even as God is eternal who implanted that love in her heart! O mother dear, how can I begin now to thank you or to repay you for all that you have suffered and endured in order to shelter, protect and rear me until I had reached the age of discretion and independence. And even unto the last you have been my loving guide and my ever present inspiration. And now, O sacred spirit of my mother, I can offer you only the tender tear of loving and devoted memory.

O God, help me to live a life worthy of my mother's hope and prayer. Preserve her soul in Your all-loving peace, and may her spirit ever keep me pure and clean so that when my time comes to leave this earth dwelling, I may be found worthy to join my mother in her eternal abode of bliss in which the noble and the pure in spirit may behold Your countenance in everlasting joy.

Amen

PRAYER AT A FATHER'S GRAVE

"Eternal, who shall sojourn in Your tabernacle? Who shall dwell upon Your holy mountain? One who walks uprightly, and works righteousness, and speaks truth in one's heart; Who does not slander others or wrong them, who does not take on a reproach against a neighbor; in whose eyes a vile person is despised, but who honors them that fear the Eternal; one who swears to one's own hurt, and changes not; one who puts not out money on interest, nor takes a bribe against the innocent. One who does these things shall never be moved."

— Psalm XV

In this silent grave repose the earthly remains of my best friend, my dearest benefactor appointed by God to love and protect me during the tender years of my life, my dear and my beloved father. Oh, to hear your voice again, to clasp your hand and to look into your fatherly eyes for strength and for courage and for comfort! How can I repay you for all the devotion and loving kindness which I have received at your hands.

O Eternal, show me the way and give me the will to live and to work so that I may reflect honor upon my dear father's memory. Thus will I also glorify Your name, for You are the Creator of all, and in Your keeping are the souls of all our dear ones.

Amen

In Blessed Memory of Our Loved Ones

PRAYER AT A WIFE'S GRAVE

"Give her the fruit of her hands;
and may her deeds praise her
within the gates."

– Proverbs XXXI

My heart cries unto You, Almighty God, out of the depths of my distress. You alone know the loneliness of my days, bereft of her whom You gave me as my companion and helpmate. Let me not yield to despair. Help me to be loyal to every trust she reposed in me, and steadfast to every duty her passing away has left to me. Fill me with manly courage to live true to the ideals of purity and nobility with which she inspired me.

Grant unto me strength and unto our dear ones the steadfast resolve to cherish faithfully the spirit of love with which she filled our home. May the example of her good endeavor, may the bonds of our common sorrow unite more firmly the ties of our family affections. Teach me, O God, the lesson of resignation. Fill me with the firm trust that death does not end all, but that in death, as in life, all are in Your keeping. May I say with sincere humility: Your thoughts are not our thoughts: nor are Your ways our ways. For high as are the heavens above the earth, so high are Your ways above our ways, and Your thoughts above our thoughts.

Amen

PRAYER AT A HUSBAND'S GRAVE

"O God, behold and see the sorrow of my heart. Widowed and bereft I mourn the loss of the dear companion of my life.

Help me, O God, to bear this burden bravely. Teach me to bend my will to Your supreme will that does all things for the best, for all Your ways are right and all Your judgments just. You did send me untold blessings through the gift of his loving care. For these my heart overflows with thankfulness. May I not mar the gratitude I here offer by murmuring and complaints.

Grant that I may live true to the hope and prayers which bound our hearts together. Fill me with zeal to carry out every noble thought he cherished and to fulfill every duty to my home and my dear ones which he bequeathed to me. May the memory of his love and faithfulness ever aid and inspire me. I cast my burden upon You, O Eternal; Uphold me in the hours of my weakness, for You are near to the broken and contrite heart. May my life prove that love is as strong as death. Grant me more and more of the comforting faith in life immortal. May Your blessing of peace attend me through all my days.

Amen

In Blessed Memory of Our Loved Ones

PRAYER AT A SISTER'S GRAVE

"Out of the depths have I called You, O Eternal. Eternal, hearken unto my voice; let Your ears be attentive to the voice of my supplications. If You, God, should mark iniquities, who could stand? For with You there is forgiveness, that You may be feared. I wait for the Eternal; my soul waits for the Eternal, more than watchers for the morning; yea, more than watchers for the morning."

— Psalms CXXX

How precious to me was the deep love of my sister! And now, O God, that You have taken her from me there is a void which I often feel can never be filled.

Her kindness, her patience, her comforting words softened the trails of many a day. As I think of all this, how heavily my heart is bowed down by the sorrow of her taking away.

As I stand in the peaceful quiet of this spot, divine hope whispers in my soul that she is at rest in Your keeping. May this thought sustain me. May I be thankful unto You, O God, for the life of my dear sister: and may every thought of her incline my soul to deeds of kindness, mercy, and righteousness.

Amen

PRAYER AT A BROTHER'S GRAVE

"I will bless the Eternal, who has given me counsel; in the night seasons my reins instruct me. I have set the Eternal always before me; surely God is at my right hand, I shall not be moved. Therefore my heart is glad, and my glory rejoices; my flesh also dwells in safety; for You will not abandon my soul to the netherworld, neither will You suffer Your godly one to see the pit. You make me to know the path of life; in Your presence is fullness of joy, in Your right hand bliss for ever more."

— Psalms XVI

Tender memories fill my thoughts as I stand here by the grave of my brother. Precious was the blessing that God gave me in his life. A brother indeed, was he at all times, kind and considerate in his words, thoughtful and generous in his deeds.

O God, in Your infinite wisdom and justice You have taken him from me. I sorely miss him. But the influence of his character is and ever shall be upon me. I pray to you, O God, to strengthen my soul with an abiding faith in life hereafter, and give me courage to bear whatever Your providence sends unto me. According to my power, may I never fail to aid others who are in need of sympathy and help.

Amen

In Blessed Memory of Our Loved Ones

PRAYER AT A CHILD'S GRAVE

"In You, O Eternal, have I taken refuge; be You to me a rock of refuge; Therefore for Your name's sake lead me and guide me. Into Your hand, I commit my spirit; You have redeemed me, O Eternal, God of truth. For You have seen my affliction; You have taken cognizance of the troubles of my soul."

– Proverbs XXXI

Oh God, from the depths I cry unto You. You have taken away from me my dear child. O help me to feel that the ways of Your providence are wise and good, though we understand them not.

You, O God, know that my soul would not question Your justice; I would not rebel against Your decree. It is the tender and deep love which my dear child brought into my heart that draws me here. O merciful Creator, have mercy upon me and send the healing balm of Your consolation to my grieving spirit.

In this moment my soul feels but little strength to praise. Yet if You did take away this life, You also did give it. O may the light of love which my child kindled within my heart continue to burn brightly, so that as I regain strength of soul, I may bring cheer unto all my dear ones. Praised be You, O God, who comforts the mourner with hope in life eternal.

Amen

FOR THE DEAR DEPARTED ONES

May God remember the souls of my father and mother, my grandfathers and grandmothers, my uncles and aunts, my brothers and sisters, whether paternal or maternal, who are gone to their repose; for that, I now solemnly offer charity for their sake; in reward of this, may their souls enjoy eternal life, with the souls of Abraham, Isaac and Jacob; Sarah, Rebecca, Rachel and Leah, and the rest of the righteous that are in Paradise: and let us say, Amen.
